CODE OF CONDUCT FOR PCHEA MEMBERS

1. Adult members should conduct themselves, at all times in a way that honors God.
2. Adult support group members should maintain order and discipline of their own children and an other children for whom they are responsible.
3. Adults should know where their children are and what their children are doing at all times.
4. If you are unable to attend an activity with your child, designate another adult to be responsible for your child, and be sure your child knows who's in charge of them
5. Adults should consider reservations for activities as firm commitments, and should strive to fulfill these commitments and be prepared to pay for the reservations if unable to attend.
6. Non home-educated children are not allowed to participate in sponsored activities. Some exceptions may be made prior to the activity. Parents must first check with officers.
7. No tobacco, alcoholic beverage, or profanity is permitted at any sponsored activity.
8. Students should obey all adult representatives at all times.
9. Students should be polite and respectful to adult teachers and representatives by being quiet, listening well and by not arguing or talking back when disciplined.
10. Students must have permission from their parents or adult in charge to leave the group when participating in any group activity.
11. Students should respect one another by keeping hands and feet to themselves, never pushing, shoving, or hurting one another – even with words.
12. Students should never touch or play with anything unless they have permission from the adult in charge.
13. Students should not run or shout during indoor group activities, unless otherwise stated.
14. Men and Boys must keep their shirts on; women and girls must not bar midriffs.
15. Non home-educated children are not allowed to participate in sponsored activities. Some exceptions may be made prior to the activity. Parents must first check with officers.

Failure to uphold this Code of Conduct will result in the following actions being implemented by a PCHEA officer(s) ONLY:

- 1 The first offense will result in removal from the activity with an attempt to reconcile verbally.
- 2 The second offense will result in a temporary suspension of all activities and or a probation period.
- 3 The third offense will result in a suspension from all activities for the rest of the school year.
